FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

HOUSTON JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB HOSTS 35TH ANNUAL HOLIDAY HAPPENING FUNDRAISER TO AID LOCAL CHILDREN'S CHARITIES

HOUSTON, TEXAS, April 18, 2018 – Houston Junior Woman's Club will hold its 35th annual Holiday Happening fundraising luncheon and style show on October 22, 2018. Doors will open at 10:00 a.m. at the Royal Sonesta Houston Galleria, 2222 West Loop South, allowing guests to shop for handmade holiday gifts and gift baskets prior to the luncheon.

Houston Junior Woman's Club is very pleased to be honoring Origin Bank during Holiday Happening 2018.

Over the last 35 years, HJWC has raised in excess of $5.9 million for local children's charities. This year the funds raised by HJWC will benefit Bayou Bend Collection and Gardens of the Museum of Fine Arts, Houston, Ronald McDonald House Houston, Texas Children's Cancer Center at Texas Children's Hospital, and other local children's charities.

Holiday Happening 2018 will feature a Live Auction, Silent Auction, and Big Board, as well as a "Holiday Market" where gift baskets and a wide array of handcrafted gift items can be purchased. Elizabeth Anthony's exquisite winter and holiday fashions will be featured during the style show!

Holiday Happening is open to the public. Tickets may be purchased by contacting Christine Cummins at 713-868-1830, Nina Lambright 713-789-5676 or by visiting www.houstonjuniorwomansclub.org for more information. Individual tickets are $200 and reserved tables start at $2,000.

ABOUT HOUSTON JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB

Founded in 1968, Houston Junior Woman's Club is dedicated to serving the needs of children within the Houston area. Throughout the year, the women of HJWC give of their time, talents, volunteer service hours, and financial assistance to Texas Children's Cancer Center at Texas Children's Hospital and Ronald McDonald House Houston, and also serve as volunteer guides for Family Day at Bayou Bend Collection and Gardens.
